On the occasion of the International Day Against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking, 12 NCC cadets of 1(T) Girls Battalion from Veeranari Chakali Ilamma Women's University attended the event which was organised by Eagle force, Telangana Police organised an awareness exhibition under the Nasha Mukh Bharat Abhiyaan (NMBA) and Mission Paarivathana.

The event was held from 11:00 AM to 6:00 PM at the Open Space between Towers B & D, Ground Floor, TGiCCC Building, Banjara Hills, Hyderabad.

Sri C.V. Anand, IPS, Director General of Police, Telangana graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. The exhibition aimed to sensitize the public, especially youth, about the menace of drug abuse and the collective responsibility to build a drug-free society.

12 NCC cadets of 1(T) Girls Battalion from Veeranari Chakali Ilamma Women's University attended the event and actively participated in the awareness activities .

Key Attractions at the Exhibition:

- Anti-Drug Soldier Selfie Booth to encourage public pledges against drugs.
- Awareness Videos and Digital Displays showcasing the ill-effects of drug abuse.
- Signature Wall for visitors to express solidarity with the cause.
- Distribution of Awareness Material including books, leaflets, and pamphlets.

The event educated visitors on “measures to avoid drugs”, “actions to take on witnessing drug use or trafficking” including reporting to helpline “1098”, “legal and health consequences of drug abuse”, “functioning of rehabilitation centres”, and “women safety initiatives by SHE Teams” of Telangana Police.

The initiative by Eagle Force under NMBA and Mission Paarivathana received wide appreciation from visitors. The program successfully spread the message of a Nasha Mukta Bharat and reinforced the commitment of Telangana Police towards a drug-free and safe society.
